Palmerston North

Director

Management role in the arts

A fantastic fulltime opportunity has arisen to combine leadership skills with a passion for arts.

Community Arts Palmerston North offers a range of services to the community including exhibitions, classes, arts recycling and arts funding.

We are looking for a dynamic Director to extend this range of services into the future, maximise the emergence of our brand new digital theatre and to grow our engagement with the public and the arts community.

The ideal candidate will have excellent organisational and communication skills, an ability to think strategically and act decisively as well as a good working knowledge and affinity for the arts. Experience in marketing, promotion and fundraising will also be an advantage.

Applications close September
